

Biography

Mark A. DiVecchio, Erie County Executive

A native of Erie, Mark DiVecchio attended St. Peter's Cathedral Center. He is a 1977 graduate of Strong Vincent High School, and a 1981 graduate of Gannon University, where he received a B.A. in Political Science. He was elected to the office of County Executive in 2006, serving as the chief executive officer for Erie County which has a population of more than 280,000 people and encompasses 38 municipalities.

As County Executive, Mr. DiVecchio is responsible for the administration of:

- Department of Law
- Department of Personnel
- Department of Finance
- Department of Operations
- Department of Corrections
- Department of Planning
- Department of Human Services
- Department of Library Services
- Department of Public Health
- Department of Economic Development
- Department of Public Safety

Before being elected to the office of County Executive, Mr. DiVecchio served on County Council from 1998 through 2005.

Mr. DiVecchio has participated on numerous community boards and organizations:

- President, Board of Directors, Pleasant Ridge Manor
- Member of Congregational Action to Life Lives (CALL)
- Erie Cursillo Movement
- Knights of Columbus
- Erie Maennerchor Club
- Polish National Alliance
- Sons of Italy
- Polish Falcons
- Member of the Order of Kentucky Colonels
- Member of the Knights of St. Patrick
- Former Member of Board of Directors for Boys & Girls Club of Erie
- Former member of St. Mark's Parish Council
- Former member of St. Patrick's Parish Council

Mr. DiVecchio has been in the restaurant and catering business since 1982, and he is the owner of DiVecchio Food Products.

Mr. DiVecchio married Susan E. (Pacinelli) DiVecchio in 1991. He has two daughters, Maria and Ann.